About the KL Cup

Providing competitive 7-a-side international football in Kuala Lumpur, Malaysia since 2016

Started in 2016, the Kuala Lumpur Cup (KL Cup for short) is a 7-a-side international youth football tournament held in Kuala Lumpur, Malaysia. Targetted at competitive junior teams from across the region, the cup aims to improve the opportunities for inter-club football in Southeast Asia.

In 2023 the KL Cup hosted 230 teams across 14 age groups and the tournament has welcomed academies from Malaysia, Singapore, Indonesia, Thailand, China, India, Pakistan, Hong Kong and Vietnam in its 8-year history.

The KL Cup in 2024

Open to teams in 15 age-groups (Boys U6, U7, U8, U9, U10, U11, U12, U14, U16 and U18, and Girls U10, U12, U14, U16 and U18), the tournament will take place across multiple venues in Malaysia's Klang Valley. All venues will provide high quality artificial turf pitches and are within 40 minutes of KL city centre.

The tournament promises two days of exciting football action at some of the region's leading football centres.
